

Instructional Leadership

CEI will assist and guide school leadership to enhance and strengthen key aspects of the school community with a focus on instruction, improved outcomes for students and their families, and building capacity for teacher effectiveness. School leaders will receive direct assistance in:

Approaches and Behaviors

- Articulating clear beliefs about how students learn best
- Grounding instruction and professional learning in research
- Understanding data and engaging all stakeholders
- Planning, implementing, and monitoring the school's Instructional Focus
- Developing and leveraging the expertise of the instructional cabinet members through collaborative discourse

Approaches to Teacher Practice

- Planning, implementing, and revising a Professional Learning Plan
- Communicating high expectations for academic achievement for all learners
- Maintaining a clear instructional focus
- Using protocols to generate distributed leadership
- Using a range of interim and formative data to assess student and class performance on an ongoing basis

Distributive Leadership for Whole School Improvement

- Examining and sharing exemplary practices for teaching and learning
- Strengthening collaboration and developing strong teacher teams through data team and Looking at Student Work (LASW) protocols
- Integrating college and career readiness across content areas and grade levels
- Creating vibrant parent engagement opportunities
- Increasing community involvement and partnerships
- Identifying model sites that can be visited for leadership, learning and collaboration in key areas
