

New Principals' Package

CEI Team experts will work with new principals in all aspects of the school community with a focus on instruction, improved opportunities and outcomes for students and their families, and building capacity for school leadership. Our experts will assist the new principal in both overall leadership strategies and individualized strategies needed to address school specific areas of need. Using a structured model and research based methods, we will provide the new principal with a "tool-kit" for success.

New school leaders will receive direct assistance in:

- Planning, implementing, and monitoring the school's Instructional Focus
- Developing the instructional cabinet, assistant principals, and all school leaders
- Grounding instruction and professional learning through research
- Understanding data and engaging all stakeholders in the instructional focus
- Planning, monitoring, and revising a Professional Learning Plan
- Communicating high expectations for student academic performance to staff
- Using protocols to generate distributed leadership
- Using data to assess student and classroom performance on an ongoing basis
- Strengthening the college and career readiness focus
- Creating vibrant parent engagement opportunities
- Increase community involvement and partnerships
- Identifying model sites that can be visited for leadership learning and collaboration in key areas
- Refining and monitoring all aspects of organization and administration
- Maximizing the school budget and identifying external partnerships

Principals' will also benefit in meeting with other new principals to discuss areas of concern in a monthly (2) hour after-school session. CEI will have guest speakers as well as veteran principals to share information and ideas.
